Rick,

Following up on my voicemail, we agreed to give Sheryl/Gina/Cathy until Monday cob to provide comments on the draft report to congress. Our plan is to turn around their comments by cob Tuesday so that you can transmit to Alex. In the meantime, please review and let us know if you have any comments. OGC is conducting a concurrent review (Michele wanted to give Bob and Joe an opportunity to review). BEAD and PRD have already reviewed. This has been an incredibly tight timeline and everyone has done an amazing job fitting in the reviews/responding to comments and not to mention drafting the report!

Thanks,
Marietta

Interagency Deliberative – not to be released outside of the federal government

Hello Gina, Cathy, and Sheryl,

Attached is a draft of the report to congress that we are putting together in response to the 2018 farm bill requirements that we discussed yesterday. The updated schedule is also included below. As we discussed yesterday, we are planning to send to Alex on COB Tuesday. Therefore, please send me any edits and comments you have by the end of Monday (or 9:00 am Tuesday at the very latest) so we can incorporate your edits and send up for clearance. We will incorporate your comments by COB Tuesday and transmit the revised draft to Alex. We will also share the version that goes forward to Alex with you guys.

Thank you for turning this around so quickly!

Brian
